Please note:

Payment should be made in advance. Should you choose to deposit the money into our bank account, please fax us your bank deposit slip. In the unfortunate event of a delegate not being able to attend the programme due to unforeseen circumstances, the course fee is still liable if the cancellation is not made in writing, more than 10 days prior to the start of the programme. This is due to expenses for the venue, catering and materials having already been expended. Delegates are responsible for their own travel and accommodation arrangements.
